

Long Island University at Riverhead
Faculty Person for Teaching Students with Disabilities

Non-Tenure Track Faculty Position
Full-Time (Nine Month) Annually Renewable Appointment

Thriving teacher education program in Eastern Suffolk County seeks a faculty person for the Teaching Students with Disabilities master's degree program. Responsibilities include teaching graduate courses in special education including courses in mild disabilities/special education general curriculum, supervising practicum experiences and advising students.

Qualifications: Earned doctorate or ABD with firm completion date in Special Education, Clinical Psychology or related field and college-level teaching experience.

Additional Preferred Qualifications: Board Certified Behavioral Analyst or education/experience necessary to sit for the BCBA exam, K-12 public school teaching or consulting experience and knowledge and/or experience with technology and online teaching. Experience with TEAC accreditation is also desirable.

Preference will be given to those with K-12 public school teaching experience and/or experience teaching in elementary teacher preparation programs in higher education. This is a non-tenure track, nine month position. Full time benefits are included.

Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled. Interested candidates should submit, by e-mail, a cover letter and curriculum vitae, to:

Jennifer Browne
Associate Provost
Jennifer.Browne@liu.edu